

WORLD'S RECORDS BROKEN

Station Allerton Tots a Mile in 2:10 and Pacer Direct Covers One in 2:06.

Close of the Grand Circuit Races—Trotting and Pacing at Saginaw, Danville, Shelbyville and Other Points—Ball Games.

INDEPENDENCE, Ia., Sept. 4.—Two of the world's records were broken to-day. Allerton totted the mile in 2:10, and Pacer Direct covered one in 2:06.

Direct, the little black pacer wonder, covered the mile in 2:06, breaking the world's station records for both trotters and pacers.

Allerton will beat Maud S's record this year, is Williams' prediction, and knows what he is talking about. Direct not only breaks the station record, but breaks the pacer record of the world.

The sun was just sinking as Allerton was brought on to beat his record of 2:11, made only last Monday. The station was full of fire and eager for the start. When the word was given he sprang away like an arrow and as staunch and firm as an ocean craft. Down to the quarter the watches told that the station had been not 34 seconds. With a light not one whit decreased he beat the half in 1:07 1/2, the flag fell at the third quarter in 1:38 and Williams had not made a move to coax the effort. Just before reaching the wire the whip came down and the station led under the wire in 2:10 flat—winner of the world's best record for a trotting station.

Two of the watches in the stand and the majority of outside watches caught the time at 2:09 1/2.

It was just as dusk that the little black station Direct, by Director, owned by Monroe Salisbury, of Pleasanton, Cal., was brought out to beat his record of 2:04 1/2, made on this track last week. George Starr was behind him, and Busher drove the runner, old Ned Gordon, as he did the mile by Allerton. The game little horse went away for the race like a streak of black shadow in the gathering twilight and paced the route in the strong, steady style peculiar to the Director family. He reached the first quarter in thirty-two seconds, the half in 1:04, the third quarter in 1:34 1/2, and the watch stopped in 2:06 1/2, as he passed the stand. He had beaten Johnson's pacer record, and pandemonium reigned among the excited crowd when the wonderful pacer finished in 2:06 1/2, a crowd almost delirious from excitement that wanted its way homeward in the gathering night.

Commenting on the dispatch from Independence, the Chicago Inter Ocean tomorrow will say: Westmont holds the pacer record. On July 10, 1884, with a running mate, he paced a mile against time on the old West Side track, in Chicago, in 2:01 1/2.

Outlaw Killed.

Shot by a Boy While on His Way to Archer, Fla., to "Kill Some Crackers."

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Sept. 4.—Harmon Murray, the notorious colored outlaw, who has defied the authorities for nearly a year and terrorized a wide section of country, was killed about daylight this morning by Hardy Early, a colored lad of seventeen. The killing occurred in a swamp near Archer, Fla. Murray called on Early about 4 o'clock and ordered him to go with him to Archer, where he said he was going to kill some crackers. Early did not want to go, and said he had no gun, but Murray took Early to the latter's brother's house and made him produce a double-barrel shotgun. Both barrels were loaded, and Murray and Early put fifteen more in barrel. The two then started to Archer, having to pass through a swamp on the way. When they got to the swamp Early pretended he did not know the trail, and asked Murray to lead. Murray took the lead, and immediately Early poured the contents of both barrels into the back of Murray's head, killing him instantly. Early then notified the people of Archer, and a crowd went to the spot brought the corpse to town, and afterward sent it to Jacksonville. The excitement here has been very great, and the fact that Murray's confederates have occurred in that vicinity. Early was the hero of the hour, and was mounted on a box from which he made a speech. He said that he had killed seven men within the past year, and was as fearless as he was bloodthirsty.

Alger Will Not Decline.

The Michigan Man Defines His Position on the Presidential Nomination Question.

CHICAGO, Sept. 4.—"I have never said to any one that I would not be a candidate for the presidency before the Republican national convention," said Gen. Russell A. Alger, of Detroit, at the Grand Pacific, to-day. "I did not tell Grand Army men, or any other person, that I would not be a candidate, and that I was for Blaine. I have not discussed the question of any candidate, and I certainly will not decline in advance anything until some one offers it to me. Regarding Mr. Blaine's nomination, I have said before, and now say, that it depends on himself. If Mr. Blaine wishes the nomination he can have it without a struggle. It is his duty to go forward, and I am sure that he will do so."

"YOU'RE AN INFAMOUS LIAR."

Tennessee Legislators Hurl Epithets at Each Other. Then Apologize and Make Up.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 4.—"You're an infamous liar," came the hot retort in the Senate chamber this morning, and immediately the Sergeant-at-arms was called upon to prevent a personal combat between two Senators almost in front of the chairman's stand. The gavel aimed upon the marble slab, order was restored and the two belligerents, Senators Alexander and Early, after reflecting a little were sorry that the scene had been created. Both made concessions, apologized to the Senate and to one another and, like men, made friends. The trouble arose in a debate over a resolution by Mr. Alexander, providing that a reward be offered for the apprehension and conviction of Messrs. Irish, Ingraham, Merrill and Hamaker, the committee from the insurgent miners of Briceville, on the ground that they had incited lawless violence, and that they were guilty of the State. This exciting episode served to divert attention from the other proceedings. The Senate then proceeded to the House resolution appointing a committee to investigate the alleged incendiary conduct of Commissioner of Labor Ford and Representative Altman and the House resolution declaring the General Assembly powerless to abrogate the lease were adopted, the latter with the amendment without creating a ripple. Under other circumstances a fiery debate would no doubt have been called forth by both measures.
